

Rebecca Kennelly Haas

Rebecca Haas has been a resident of Richmond, Texas for fifty (50) years and a business owner for ten of those years. Rebecca holds numerous positions within the community including the Historical Commissions of Fort Bend County and the City of Richmond, Fort Bend County Museum, Fort Bend Museum Docents, Historic Richmond Association and the Richmond Citizens Police Academy Alumni Association. Rebecca's proudest realization is that she is a direct descendent of one of the Stephen F. Austin's Old 300 colonist. She serves as the Chaplain of the Descendants of the Austin's Old Three Hundred Organization. Rebecca has a deep love for the City of Richmond and serves it with countless hours of her time.